Hermes and Cupid stir up trouble of Olympic proportions in this “myth-guided” tale. A beautiful young maiden named Phoebe and her shepherd suitor, Bastian, fall victim to the mischief of the gods. Chaos lurks around every corner in this comedic retelling of the events which lead to the Trojan War . . . almost.

Join the cast of our next theater production!
This comical tale written by Reif Education Director, Katie E. Smith is based on Greek Mythology and is full of wonderful characters. All students in 3rd through 12th grade are welcome to join the cast and take their chance to shine!

AUDITIONS FOR Ain’t Mythbehavin Saturday, February 27 @ THE REIF

Grades 3-6 Saturday, February 27, 12:00-2:00
Grades 7-12 Saturday, February 27, 2:30-4:30

Everyone gets a part. Auditions help me find where you fit best.
Please plan to stay for your entire audition time.

How to prepare for auditions:

- Read the audition sides that are available on the website. Get to know the characters and try experimenting with saying the parts out loud. You may be asked to read for multiple parts. Just remember that every moment counts in auditions. Give it your all even if you are not reading for the part you want. Directors are always looking to see how versatile you can be and how well you take direction.

  Check out the audition sides to get familiar with some of the language used in the show.

- Prepare something to recite at auditions. This can be anything you have memorized. I want to see how you handle language that you are really comfortable with. It can be a poem, a speech or the pledge of allegiance. Once you have recited, I may ask you to do it again as though you are stuck in quicksand or as though you smell rotten eggs. This allows me to see how well you take direction and how you handle different feelings or emotions. Parents, please help your kids understand ahead of time that getting direction does not mean they have done anything wrong. Sometimes kids shut down when they feel like they are being criticized. Taking direction is part of theatre. Sometimes we try things several different ways before we find the “right” one.

Theatre students will be part of the acting cast of the show. Any students who do not wish to be on stage will be given positions on the stage crew. All theatre students will have a chance to contribute to some technical aspects of the show. This could include painting sets, building props, sewing costumes, etc.

Performances April 16-18 or April 23-25

Written and directed by Katie E. Smith

Come take your place upon the stage!
